Article I: Location of Offices

The name of this Corporation is Cornerstone Church. It is a Wyoming nonprofit religious Corporation with its principal offices in Jackson, Wyoming.

Article II: Purpose

This Corporation is organized exclusively for religious purposes (including charitable and eleemosynary purposes common to a pastoral church ministry as defined by Scripture). Our commission is summarized as follows: “And Jesus came up and spoke to them, saying, “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age” (Matthew 28:18-20).

Article III: Statement of Faith

The statement of faith of this Corporation is that which is incorporated in its Articles of Incorporation as filed in the Office of the Secretary of State of the State of Wyoming.

At the direction of the Elders or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, the statement of faith is supplemented and clarified by “The Elders Statement on Marriage, Divorce, Remarriage and Sexuality,” the Doctrinal Distinctives issued by the Elders or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, and such other doctrinal statements as may be subsequently issued by the Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders.

Article IV: Corporate Membership

Section 1. Corporate Members

The Corporation shall have no members. Any action which would otherwise require approval by a majority of all members shall only require approval of the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders. All rights which would otherwise vest in the members shall vest in the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders.

Section 2. Members of the Fellowship

Nothing contained in Section 1 of this Article shall be construed to limit the right of the Corporation to refer to persons associated with the Corporation as “members” even though such persons are not corporate members, and no such reference in or outside of these Bylaws shall constitute anyone being a member, within the meaning of W.S. 17-19-140 of the Wyoming Nonprofit Corporation Act. The Corporation may confer by amendment of its Articles or of these Bylaws some or all of the rights of a member, as set forth in the Wyoming Nonprofit Corporation Law, upon any person or persons who do not have the right to vote for the election of officers or on a disposition of substantially all of the assets of the Corporation or on a dissolution or on changes to the Corporation's Articles or Bylaws, but no such person shall be a member within the meaning of said W.S. 17-19-140.

Article V: Church Membership

Section 1. Purpose of the Fellowship

The congregation of Christian believers who have applied for membership and have been duly accepted shall constitute a spiritual body, united for the spiritual purposes set forth in the Articles of Incorporation at Article II, and in Article II of these Bylaws.

Section 2. Active Membership

Active membership in the Cornerstone Church shall be open to all persons who confess Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior and who have been baptized.

Section 3. Voting Privileges

Membership in this church shall not vest in any member a proprietary right in the Corporation, but shall only entitle the member to vote at a meeting of the members on those matters that the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, chooses to submit to the church membership for affirmation. In such cases, voting privileges are restricted to members who are in good standing, who are not under any disciplinary action, and who have passed their 18th birthday. Membership shall not be assignable inter vivos by any member nor shall membership vest to any personal representative, heir, or devisee.

Section 4. Applications for Membership

All requests for membership shall be made to a Pastor, Elder, Deacon, or Steering Committee Member. Upon making such a request, the person shall be given an application for membership, along with a copy of the Statement of Faith contained in the Articles of Incorporation and a copy of the Bylaws. A Pastor, Elder, or Steering Committee member, if Steering Committee not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, shall meet with the applicant following receipt of the application. Each applicant shall assent to the Statement of Faith, subscribe to the Bylaws, and shall testify publicly before a duly appointed Committee of the Board, per Article VI, Section 17 of these Bylaws, at a regularly held meeting for prospective members.

Section 5. Denial of Membership

If, upon review of an application for membership or after meeting with a prospective member, the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, determines that the applicant does not confess Jesus Christ as his or her Lord and Savior, or that there is a lack of evidence of a Christ-like lifestyle, membership shall be denied. The decision made by the Board, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, shall be final and there shall be no appeal to any court from that decision.

Section 6. Admission of Applicants

Applicants admitted to membership shall, if possible present themselves at a worship service designated by the Pastor and Board of Elders, at which service such applicants shall publicly affirm their membership commitment and be publicly acknowledged as members.

Section 7. Responsibilities of Members

Members shall seek to exercise their spiritual gifts for the work of service to honor Jesus Christ and build up the church and shall submit to the loving shepherding of the Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders.

Section 8. Church Discipline.

- a.) Purpose: The purpose of church discipline is to glorify God by: 1) pursuing a sinning believer for the purpose of helping them be reconciled to God and the church (Matthew 18:12-18, 1 Corinthians 5:5, Galatians 6:1) 2) promote the holiness of Christ in the local church (1 Corinthians 5:6) 3) promote a biblical fear of God and turn away from sinning (1 Tim 5:20).
- b.) Process: Members of this church and all other professing Christians who regularly attend or fellowship with this church who err in doctrine, or engage in conduct that violates Scripture as determined by the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, shall be subject to church discipline including dismissal according to Matthew 18:15-18. Prior to such dismissal
 - i. It shall be the duty of any member of this church who has knowledge of the erring individual's deviation in conduct or doctrine to come alongside them in private to warn and correct for the purpose of the erring individual's repentance and restoration so that they may be won over. If the erring individual does not heed the warning, then:
 - ii. The warning individual shall again come alongside the erring individual seeking his or her repentance, but accompanied by one or two individuals who confirm that the sin has occurred or is occurring and/or that the erring individual has been appropriately confronted and has refused to repent. The first and second warnings may occur with no specified time interval. If the erring individual does not heed this warning, then:
 - iii. The matter shall be brought to the attention of the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders. If the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, determines, after thorough investigation in accord with the procedures prescribed by pertinent Scripture, including Matthew 18:15-18 and 1 Timothy 5:19, that there is corroborating evidence that the erring individual has sinned or continues to sin, and that he or she has refused to repent, then the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, shall inform the church and the congregation thereof at a regularly scheduled worship service in order that the church may come alongside the erring individual to call them to repentance and restoration. If the erring individual demonstrates repentance, then notice of such shall be given at a regularly scheduled worship service. If the erring individual does not repent in response to the church in its collective call to repentance, then:

- iv. The erring individual shall be publically dismissed from the fellowship and/or membership of the church and the congregation thereof at a regularly scheduled worship service. If the erring individual, after the aforementioned dismissal, heeds the warning, demonstrates repentance, and requests reinstatement before the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, then he or she shall be publically restored to all the rights, duties, privileges, and responsibilities of fellowship and/or membership.
- c.) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, in their exercise of their discretion may proceed directly to the third step of church discipline (i.e. the informing of the church and congregation thereof at a regularly scheduled worship service in order that the church may collectively call the erring individual to repentance) or to the fourth stage of church discipline (i.e. dismissal from the fellowship and/or membership of the church) when one or more of the following have occurred:
- i. Where the sin and the refusal to repent have been public, i.e. openly and to the offense of the whole Church (1 Corinthians 5:1-5).
 - ii. Where the disciplined individual has taught or otherwise disseminated doctrine deemed false or erroneous by the elders, then subsequently chose to disregard the direction and reproof of the elders (Romans 16:17); or
 - iii. Where the disciplined party has been warned twice to cease from factious and divisive conduct, as determined by the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, and has chosen to disregard that warning (Titus 3:10-11).
- d.) The members of this church, and all other professing Christians who regularly attend or fellowship with this church, agree that there shall be no appeal to any court because of the dismissal or because of public statements to the congregation at the third or fourth stages of church discipline. Members who are under discipline by the church, as defined in the previous paragraphs, forfeit and waive the right to resign from this church. Resignations from membership are possible only by members who are in good standing and who are not under any disciplinary action.
- e.) Separate and apart from the process of church discipline, but subject to the discretion and approval of the elders, a member, non-member regular attender, or other individual may be notified that he or she is not to be present upon church premises for such a period of time as is deemed necessary for the safety and well-being of others on church premises. Such required absence may, but need not, be concurrent with the church discipline of that person.
- f.) Separate and apart from the process of church discipline, but subject to the discretion and approval of the elders, the names of any members who have not attended a worship service, Sunday school class session, or Fellowship Group meeting at the church for a period of six months or longer may be removed from the membership rolls.

Section 9. Regular Meetings

A regular annual meeting of the church members shall be held at the principal office of the church in the first quarter of each year. At such regular annual meeting, the members shall consider reports of the affairs of the Corporation, and transact such other business as the Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, determine shall be brought before the meeting, including but not limited to affirmation of the appointments made by the Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, of those who shall serve as Elders for the ensuing year and the election of those qualified in the offices of Deacons and Deaconesses.

Section 10. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the members may be called at any time by order of the Pastor-Teacher, the Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, or by a quorum of the members of the Board of Elders.

Section 11. Notice of Meetings

Notice of regular meetings shall be given from the pulpit by the Pastor for two successive Sundays prior to the meeting. In addition thereto, notice shall be published in the regular church bulletin for two successive Sundays prior to such meeting. Notice of special meetings shall be given from the pulpit at least seven days prior to the meeting and shall be published in the regular church bulletin on the Sunday immediately preceding the meeting.

Section 12. Quorum

At all meetings of the members, whether regular, special or adjourned, the members present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 13. Voting Rights

Those admitted to the church membership do not constitute a legislative body, nor do they constitute members of the Corporation, and they cannot vote, pass resolutions binding upon the Corporation, nor shall they have any equity in the real property of the Corporation, or rights to vote on its disposal. Said property of the Corporation is dedicated to religious and charitable purposes as outlined in the Articles of Incorporation.

Article VI: Elders

Section 1. Powers

Subject to the limitations of the Articles and these Bylaws and of pertinent restrictions of the Corporation Code of the State of Wyoming, all the activities and affairs of the Corporation shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, who are responsible for shepherding and having oversight of the flock. Without prejudice to such general powers, but subject to these same limitations, it is hereby expressly declared that the Board, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board

Ordination shall be conferred for life, so long as the man continues to manifest the qualifications of the office.

Section 2. Licensing

The license is issued by the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, and is given in recognition of a man's call to that ministry. Its aim is to allow a man to perform the ecclesiastical duties and functions of the church. Licenses will be evaluated and issued on a yearly basis.

Section 3. Commissioning

When local-church certification is required for ministry where ordination would be unnecessary or inappropriate, a person is commissioned by the Board of Elders to the ministry, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders. This authorization continues as long as the opportunity to minister remains in effect and as long as the person maintains the qualifications for ministry.

Section 4. Weddings

All who are ordained, licensed, commissioned or otherwise authorized by this church to solemnize marriages may do so, in the exercise of religious freedom, only where the participants are one man and one woman (Gen. 2:21–24; Matt. 19:4–6; Mark 10:6–9).

The Pastor-Teacher must give one month's notice if he intends to resign. The time limit of a Pastor-Teacher's resignation or dismissal is subject to a lesser time if both the Pastor-Teacher and the church by mutual agreement provide otherwise.

The Pastor-Teacher shall be an ex officio member of all councils and committees, and he shall be responsible to the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders. The Pastor-Teacher shall arrange for and conduct all public and regular services of the church and shall be responsible for general oversight of the spiritual welfare of the church. A decision shall be reached after prayerful consideration, in a spirit of humility, with each Elder, or Steering Committee member if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, regarding one another before himself and striving to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace (Ephesians 4:1-3, Philippians 2:3-8).

Section 2. Representation of Share of Other Corporations

The Chairman or any other officer or officers authorized by the Board, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, are each authorized to vote, represent, and exercise on behalf of the Corporation all rights incident to any and all shares of any other Corporation or corporation standing in the name of the Corporation. Article XIII: Receipt, Investment, and Disbursement of Funds

Section 1.

The Corporation shall receive all monies or other properties transferred to it for the purposes for which the Corporation was formed (as shown by the Articles of Incorporation). However, nothing contained herein shall require the Board of Elders, or Steering Committee if not yet replaced by the Board of Elders, to accept or receive any money or property of any kind if it shall determine in its discretion that receipt of such money or property is contrary to the expressed purposes of the Corporation as shown by said Articles.

Section 2.
